Course overview

Unpack the critical compliance challenges of AI in this webinar series. Learn how to keep your practice compliant, protected, and future-ready. This webinar cuts through the complexity of the standard and outlines what is required of you.

Why the briefing is so urgent

A new mandatory RICS Professional Standard on the responsible use of AI comes into effect on 9 March 2026.

AI has long been celebrated for boosting productivity. Under the new RICS Professional Standard, it also becomes a critical area of professional responsibility and liability. Understanding your obligations now is essential to mitigating compliance risks.
